

American Parkour has been here since the beginning. We appreciate you all being part of American Parkour and part of the Parkour Movement both as individuals and as a group; we're glad you've been here with us on this journey. There were no road maps, not even a parkour community when we started. Heck, YouTube didn't even exist! Along the way we've faced many obstacles in our business as in our training. If we are to continue to provide the best events, resources, facilities, and instructors for the community, then we must be as successful in our business as we are in our training. Over the years we've struggled a bit with our identity "Community"? "Company"? "Organization"? Recently, we feel that we've struck a balance that will allow us to continue to grow and be a lasting resource for the community... finally, we've figured out our place in this world! Our mission hasn't changed: "Improving people's lives through parkour and freerunning" however today, we start with a new focus, a new determination and a bold new statement: together, WE ARE THE MOVEMENT
